Payment

Please make your payments and give consents via your sQuid account. If you are unable to access sQuid please bring a cheque to the school office and request a paper version of the consent form. You are invited to make a voluntary contribution to cover the cost. However, unless all parents, who are able to, contribute towards the costs, the event may not take place. If you are not able to pay the full amount please contact the school office by phone or email who will arrange for a member of the Senior Leadership Team to discuss the matter further with you.

Kind regards

The School Office
