

Year 3 Home Learning

8th June 2017

Group 1: Commonly misspelled words

school

clothes

thought

named

first

wanted

alright

sometimes

our

believe

Remember to practice your spellings (look, cover, write, check) ready for our spelling pit-stop on Friday 16th June.

Romans Invade!

Next Monday afternoon we will be re-enacting when the Romans (successfully) managed to invade Britain. Sealions will play the part of the invading Romans while Seals will play the Celts.

Sealions: feel free to bring in any armour type costumes you have at home if you want to but you do not need anything as we have made shields as your costume.

Seals: feel free to bring in any blue clothing you have but you do not need to bring in anything as we will be making Celtic headbands to wear!

Disclaimer: no actual fighting will take place- slow motion acting only!

Maths: Thank you to those who have completed their Sumdog, as always, Best Points will be awarded!

Year 3 Home Learning

8th June 2017

Group 2: Persuasive argument language

approve

disapprove

opponents

consequently undoubtedly

obviously

therefore

evidence

believe

favour

Remember to practice your spellings (look, cover, write, check) ready for our spelling pit-stop on Friday 16th June.

Romans Invade!

Next Monday afternoon we will be re-enacting when the Romans (successfully) managed to invade Britain. Sealions will play the part of the invading Romans while Seals will play the Celts.

Sealions: feel free to bring in any armour type costumes you have at home if you want to but you do not need anything as we have made shields as your costume.

Seals: feel free to bring in any blue clothing you have but you do not need to bring in anything as we will be making Celtic headbands to wear!

Disclaimer: no actual fighting will take place- slow motion acting only!

Maths: Thank you to those who have completed their Sumdog, as always, Best Points will be awarded!

Year 3 Home Learning

8th June 2017

Group 3:

everyone

really

found

work

many

Remember to practice your spellings (look, cover, write, check) ready for our spelling pit-stop on Friday 16th June.

Romans Invade!

Next Monday afternoon we will be re-enacting when the Romans (successfully) managed to invade Britain. Sealions will play the part of the invading Romans while Seals will play the Celts.

Sealions: feel free to bring in any armour type costumes you have at home if you want to but you do not need anything as we have made shields as your costume.

Seals: feel free to bring in any blue clothing you have but you do not need to bring in anything as we will be making Celtic headbands to wear!

Disclaimer: no actual fighting will take place- slow motion acting only!

Maths: Thank you to those who have completed their Sumdog, as always, Best Points will be awarded!