

Features of a fact file

Adverbs, Conjunctions, Fronted Adverbials: see word mats under supporting resources on our website for examples for you to use in your writing.

Fact/ Non- Fiction: based on facts and real life. The information is true and is backed up with evidence.

Paragraphs: more than 1 sentence of writing on one piece of information.

Title: tells the reader what the factfile is about

Introductory paragraph: a summary of what the fact file is about.

Subheading: a title given paragraph within factfile. It helps the reader find specific information in the text

Pictures and diagrams: gives more information to the reader about the piece of text.

Captions: description underneath a picture or diagram to describe what it is.