Our School Badge

Our Faith in God is central to all we do. The cross reminds us of Jesus' death and resurrection. The Bishop's mitre, shaped like a flame represents the coming of the Holy Spirit upon the Church on the day of Pentecost. The wavy lines represent our maritime connections. The fish are reminders of Jesus' calling of his disciples to be "fishers of men", and the early Christian fish symbol. The five letters of $\text{I}\chi\theta\upsilon\varsigma$, the Greek word for fish, stand for "Jesus Christ, Son of God, Saviour". The red symbolises victory and the gold generosity.
